

September is salamander time at Pfeiffer! Hear a great children's story then head out into the woods where you'll turn logs, lift rocks, peer under ledges to carefully capture salamanders and other amphibia from our old-growth forest. Have time to observe and learn about the salamanders, frogs, toads, and maybe a snake or two, then create your own amphibian art: a clay salamander or a toad house to take home.

www.PfeifferNatureCenter.org

Celebrating 15 Years! Where Science, Art & Nature Come Together